

*Excerpt from Neil Martin's,
"Tasting Notes: Tuscan IGT 2001s"*

NEIL MARTIN'S
*winejournal.com**
2005

SA'ETTA IGT 2001: exceptionally fine wine (22 pts out of 25)

A superb IGT. A lively, fresh, elegant nose with vibrant red berried fruits, mocha and orange zest. Good definition, refined, The palate is well-balanced, fresh and crisp. Very natural and elegant. Great poise and breeding with a pure, clean finish. Superb wine. (25 pt scale; 21-22 - exceptionally fine). As quoted from Neil Martin's, "Tasting Notes: Tuscan IGT 2001s"

\ Now writes for Robert Parker*